KNOCKERS³

¹ Giant Bolster: terrorised locals until tricked into bleeding to death on the Chapel Porth cliffs by the lovely and cunning St Agnes. Cornish myth

² Mermaid of Zennor: covered her tail with a coat and went to church, but her beauty consigned a nice boy called Matthew to a watery grave. Cornish myth

³ Knockers: tiny, goblin-like creatures, a little like Piskies, mainly benign but impish when crossed, said to inhabit the mines. Cornish myth

⁴ Tea: commercially and successfully grown in Cornwall, because of the county's unique climate and conditions. Unbelievable Cornish reality
